

Join education stakeholders across the state for a day focused on public school funding in Michigan...

School Funding Summit

Friday, January 8, 2010 • 9:30 a.m.–3:45 p.m. • Lansing Radisson Hotel

9:30–10 a.m. The Importance of Investing in Michigan’s Children

John Burkhardt, University of Michigan, College of Education

10–11 a.m. School Funding 101—How Does It Work and How Did We Get Here?

Lynn Jondahl, former State Representative

Mike Addonizio, Wayne State University, College of Education

11–11:15 a.m. Break

11:15 a.m.–noon School Funding 101–continued

Noon–12:30 p.m. State Demographics—Planning for the Education Population in Future Years

Larry Rosen, Public Policy Associates

12:30–1:15 p.m. Lunch

1:15–2:30 p.m. Why Is Michigan’s School Funding System Broken and How Do We Fix It?

Patrick Anderson, Anderson Economic Group

Doug Drake, Public Policy Associates

Charles Ballard, Michigan State University, Department of Economics

Panel moderated by radio host Michael Patrick Shiels

2:30–2:45 p.m. Break

2:45–3:45 p.m. Ensuring the Funding System Doesn’t Fail Our Students

Lu Battaglieri, Michigan Education Association

Ray Telman, Middle Cities Education Association

Jim Ballard, Save Our Students, Schools, State (SOS)

Panel moderated by radio host Michael Patrick Shiels

Sponsored by

