

OUTREACH TO TEACH

Student MEA is looking for volunteers who want to help with a school makeover project in Flint on May 22.

Outreach to Teach is a service project organized by members of Student MEA, an MEA affiliate for college students pursuing teaching careers. Student members from around the state are invited, as well as other MEA members who'd like to help.

This year's event is at Dort Elementary School in Flint, where volunteers will spend the day painting murals, landscaping, and performing other projects to beautify the school.

If you'd like to volunteer, complete the form here and mail it to MEA by May 7 to receive a commemorative T-shirt.

Michigan Education Association (MEA) student members joined forces with National Education Association (NEA) members for "Outreach to Teach" and descended on Zilwaukee Elementary School in Saginaw in 2009.
